

Press release 0403016

Forth Dimension Displays receives ISO14001 environmental certification.

4th March 2016, 2015, Scotland – Forth Dimension Displays (ForthDD) is pleased to announce it has received the ISO14001 environmental certification.

This certification by the International Organisation for Standardisation (ISO) recognises the company's commitment to safely and carefully manage the impact of its business on the environment.

Following an in-depth review and assessment, the certificate has been awarded in recognition of the company's efforts to minimise waste and decrease pollution.

According to Greg Truman, CEO "Our customers and suppliers value the company's philosophy to conscientiously use our resources in ways that allow us to reduce our environmental footprint whilst continuing to deliver high quality products."

The ISO14001 joins Forth Dimension Displays existing ISO9001 and ISO13485 accreditations.
